Important Information, Risk Factors and Disclaimers

Please read the Prospectus carefully before investing. Investors should carefully consider the Fund's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses before investing in the Fund. This and other information is in the Prospectus. A copy of the Prospectus and summary prospectus, and other information about the Fund, may be obtained by contacting businessdevelopment@abbeycapital.com or by calling (646) 453 7850. RISK CONSIDERATIONS: All mutual fund investing involves risk including the possible loss of principal value. Investing in a managed futures fund entails special risks and may not be suitable for all investors given its speculative nature and the high level of risk involved. The Fund is appropriate only for investors who can understand and bear the risks associated with the product. You may lose part or all of your investment in the Fund.

The Managed Futures strategy will be achieved by the Fund investing in directly or indirectly wholly-owned and controlled subsidiaries of the Fund. The Fund may invest a portion of its assets in ACMAF Onshore Series LLC and up to 25% of its total assets in ACMAF Master Offshore Limited which invests substantially all its assets in ACMAF Offshore SPC. Individual managers are appointed to (i) separate series of ACMAF Onshore Series LLC and (ii) separate segregated portfolios of ACMAF Offshore SPC and are permitted to trade certain financial, managed futures and foreign exchange contracts. All commodities futures and commodities-related investments will be made in the segregated portfolios of ACMAF Offshore SPC.

The Long U.S. Equity strategy will be achieved by allocating 50% of the Fund's total assets in a portfolio of one or more U.S. equity index futures. Futures and forward contracts may involve substantial risk, such as losses caused by unanticipated market movements, which are potentially unlimited; possible lack of a liquid secondary market; the inability to close a contract when desired; and the possibility of counterparty default.

Short sales theoretically involve unlimited loss potential since the market price of securities or contracts sold short may continuously increase. The use of certain derivatives may also have a leveraging effect which may increase the volatility of the Fund and may increase the risk of loss.

Exposure to commodities markets and commodity-linked derivatives may subject the Fund to greater volatility affected by industry related factors, value, supply and demand, governmental policies, weather, economic and political factors.

Investments in foreign and emerging markets are subject to risks from currency fluctuation, political instability, social and economic risks. In particular, emerging and frontier markets may be more volatile and less liquid than more developed markets and therefore may involve greater risks.

The Fixed Income strategy invests the Fund's assets primarily in investment grade fixed income securities (of all durations and maturities) in order to generate interest income and capital appreciation. Fixed income securities that the Fund may invest are subject to credit risk, prepayment risk and interest rate risk so that as interest rates rise the value of bond prices will decline. These risks are usually greater for longer-term debt securities.

The Fund is non-diversified which means it may be invested in a limited number of issuers and susceptible to any economic, political and regulatory events than a more diversified fund.

This brief statement cannot disclose all of the risks and other factors necessary to evaluate a participation in the Fund. Investors are urged to take appropriate investment advice and to carefully consider their investment objectives, personal situation, and factors such as net worth, income, age, risk tolerance and liquidity needs before investing in the Fund. Before investing, investors should carefully consider the Fund's investment objectives, risks, conflicts, tax considerations, charges and expenses.

Morningstar The Morningstar Rating™ for funds, or "star rating", is calculated for managed products (including mutual funds, variable annuity and variable life subaccounts, exchange-traded funds, closed-end funds, and separate accounts) with at least a three-year history. Exchange traded funds and open-ended mutual funds are considered a single population for comparative purposes. It is calculated based on a Morningstar Risk-Adjusted Return measure that accounts for variation in a managed product's monthly excess performance, placing more emphasis on downward variations and rewarding consistent performance. The Morningstar Rating does not include any adjustment for sales loads. The top 10% of products in each product category receive 5 stars, the next 22.5% receive 4 stars, the next 35% receive 3 stars, the next 22.5% receive 2 stars, and the bottom 10% receive 1 star. The Overall Morningstar Rating for a managed product is derived from a weighted average of the performance figures associated with its three-, five-, and 10-year (if applicable) Morningstar Rating metrics. The weights are: 100% three-year rating for 36-59 months of total returns, 60% five-year rating/40% three-year rating for 60-119 months of total returns, and 50% 10-year rating/30% five-year rating/20% three-year rating for 120 or more months of total returns. While the 10-year overall star rating formula seems to give the most weight to the 10-year period, the most recent three-year period actually has the greatest impact because it is included in all three rating periods. Abbey Capital Multi Asset Fund (Share Class I) received a 4-star Rating applying for the 3 year and a 5-star rating applying for the 5 year periods ending September 30, 2024 in the Multistrategy Category out of 41 and 38 funds, respectively; based on risk adjusted returns. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Morningstar Rating is for Class I Shares only; other classes may have different performance characteristics.
