

Abbey Capital Multi Asset Fund

MAFIX, MAFAX, MAFCX

31 December 2019

The Abbey Capital Multi Asset Fund (the "Fund") combines an allocation to a multi-manager managed futures strategy with a managed long US equity exposure

Fund Features

- Bi-directional managed futures exposure at a targeted level of approximately 100% of the Fund's net assets achieved through allocations to five underlying managers
- Long US equity strategy at a targeted level of approximately 50% of the Fund's net assets achieved using S&P 500 futures and managed by Abbey Capital
- Leveraged exposure to managed futures and long only equity is achieved through the use of futures margin. In order for an individual investor to achieve a similar exposure on their own, they would have to borrow capital at a cost*

Target Futures Market Exposure

▲ The strategy exposure levels relate to the targeted levels as set out in the prospectus. Managed Futures and Managed Long Equity exposures do not represent actual holdings, may not be achieved, and are approximate. Market sector allocations are included for illustrative purposes only. Data shown above relates to potential exposures of the Abbey Capital Multi Asset Fund and the Abbey Capital Multi Asset Offshore Fund Limited (a wholly-owned and controlled subsidiary of the Fund) and does not take into account any other assets held by the Fund (primarily cash and cash-equivalents). Data is shown as a percentage of Fund FUM. Fund holdings and sector allocations are subject to change and are not recommendations to buy or sell any security.

Representative allocation of $100 investment

▲ This example is provided to illustrate how the use of futures margin effectively generates leverage in the product that may allow the investor to gain indirect exposure to strategies/assets that may exceed his/her initial investment. The figures used are approximate figures used solely for illustrative purposes and are not intended to represent actual exposure on any date.

The indices listed are not actively managed and investors cannot invest directly in any of the indices listed. None of the funds managed by Abbey Capital are benchmarked against any of the indices referenced. The Barclay CTA Index is derived from data which is self-reported by investment managers based on the performance of privately managed funds. In contrast, the S&P 500 Total Return Index is an index comprising publicly traded shares. As a result these indices may not be directly comparable and the above is shown for illustrative purposes only. Investing in managed futures is not suitable for all investors given its speculative nature and the high level of risk involved. For an explanation of all indices referenced please see the back page. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Predecessor Fund

Performance shown before 11 April 2018 is for the Fund's Predecessor Fund (Abbey Global, LP). The prior performance is net of management fees and other expenses. Performance of the predecessor fund is not an indicator of future results. Abbey Global LP was launched on 14 May 2002. From May 2002 until April 2014 Abbey Global LP invested approximately 100% of its assets in a passively managed portfolio participating in the U.S. and international equity market and approximately 50% of its assets in a private placement fund managed by Abbey Capital Limited. From April 2014 to April 2018, Abbey Global LP invested approximately 50% of its assets in a passively managed portfolio participating in the U.S. equity market and approximately 50% of its assets in a private placement fund managed by Abbey Capital Limited. For further details on the Predecessor Fund please see the Prospectus.

RISK CONSIDERATIONS:

All mutual fund investing involves risk including the possible loss of principal value. Investing in a managed futures fund entails special risks and may not be suitable for all investors given its speculative nature and the high level of risk involved. The Fund is appropriate only for investors who can understand and bear the risks associated with the product. You may lose part or all of your investment in the Fund.

Except for fund returns, the portfolio statistics shown in this fact sheet are based only on the open forward, future and option contracts held by Abbey Capital Multi Asset Offshore Fund Limited (a wholly-owned and controlled subsidiary of the Fund) and does not take into account any other assets held by the Fund (primarily cash and cash equivalents). The Fund may invest approximately 25% of its total assets in the Abbey Capital Multi Asset Offshore Fund Limited which is a multi-advisor fund that invests in managed futures and foreign exchange.

Futures and forward contracts may involve substantial risk, such as losses caused by unanticipated market movements, which are potentially unlimited; possible lack of a liquid secondary market; the inability to close a contract when desired; and the possibility of counterparty default.

Short sales theoretically involve unlimited loss potential since the market price of securities or contracts sold short may continuously increase. The use of certain derivatives may also have a leveraging effect which may increase the volatility of the Fund and may increase the risk of loss.

Exposure to commodities markets and commodity-linked derivatives may subject the Fund to greater volatility affected by industry-related factors, value, supply and demand, governmental policies, weather, economic and political factors.

Investments in foreign and emerging markets are subject to risks from currency fluctuation, political instability, social and economic risks. In particular, emerging and frontier markets may be more volatile and less liquid than more developed markets and therefore may involve greater risks.

The Fixed Income strategy invests the Fund's assets primarily in investment grade fixed income securities (of all durations and maturities) in order to generate interest income and capital appreciation. Fixed income securities that the fund may invest are subject to credit risk, prepayment risk and interest rate risk so that as interest rates rise the value of bond prices will decline. These risks are usually greater for longer-term debt securities.

The Fund is non-diversified which means it may be invested in a limited number of issuers and susceptible to any economic, political and regulatory events than a more diversified fund.

This brief statement cannot disclose all of the risks and other factors necessary to evaluate a participation in the Fund. Investors are urged to take appropriate investment advice and to carefully consider their investment objectives, personal situation, and factors such as net worth, income, age, risk tolerance and liquidity needs before investing in the Fund. Before investing, investors should carefully consider the Fund's investment objectives, risks, conflicts, tax considerations, charges and expenses.
